

Legacy

Thank you for your interest in additional ways to support the work of Columban missionaries. I am pleased to provide some information on making a legacy gift to the Columbans in your will.

Each generation is called through baptism “to proclaim good news to the poor and recovery of sight to the blind” (Luke 4:18-19). A new generation of Columban priests and lay missionaries from the Philippines, Chile, Fiji, Korea, Taiwan and Myanmar is answering the call to cross-cultural mission and leaving their homes to share Gospel joy with the poor and those on the margins. Your legacy gift will help to support them on their missionary journey.

“We are here to do God’s will and we do not know 24 hours ahead what that will be”

(Bishop Edward Galvin, co-founder of the Columbans)

For guidance on preparing or making changes to a will, the types of bequest you can make and the tax benefits of leaving a charitable bequest, we suggest that you consult a qualified legal advisor. They will need to have the registered name and number of the charity, which is given below:

In England & Wales:

The Society of St. Columban for Foreign Missions
Registered Charity No. 221594

In Scotland:

Society of St. Columban Foreign Missions
Registered Charity No. SCO38948

If you need anything further, please contact Mrs Katie Howard at the above address, tel: 01564 772 096, or e-mail: katie.howard@columbans.co.uk. We understand that your first priority is to provide for the people and causes you care about. Should you decide to include Columban missions in your will, please let me know so I can say “thank you” on behalf of all our missionaries.

Yours gratefully,
