

INTERCESSIONS FOR THE 33rd SUNDAY OF THE YEAR B Remembrance Sunday

PRIEST: In the freedom of the spirit we remember all the victims of armed conflict and turn to the Lord with all our needs.

READER:

As we come towards the end of the liturgical year and prepare for the new advent. May we not fear the coming of the Lord but rejoice in the hope of a people loved and redeemed by Christ.

Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

Let us pray that we may recognise the signs of the times and always be ready to greet Christ when he comes. Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

We pray for all those suffering as refugees of violence and the horrors of war. May those responsible and those with the power make amends and help the poorest in society. Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

We pray for all those who are working for understanding and tolerance in our multi-faith multi cultural world. We pray especially that we, will take the lead in building bridges of friendship and understanding with peoples of other faiths.

Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

Let us pray for all who cry for justice and peace.. May they be heard by those in power, accepting a just and peaceful way of change and reconciliation. Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

Let us pray for all who mourn that they may be comforted. We remember all who are sick, those in hospital and those who are housebound. We remember especially the sick of our own parish congregation and our own families wherever they may be. Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

In this month of November we pray for all our departed and commend them to the love of God. Lord In your Mercy, Hear our Prayer.

Now let us pray for a few moments in silence for our own needs and intentions.

Let us ask Mary the Mother of the Lord to pray with us: Hail Mary...

PRIEST: Almighty and ever-living God

we are the Body of Christ and your church in this place. As we share in this Eucharist together may our gifts and skills glorify you.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN
