Dear Columban Friend,

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS to you from all involved in Columban Mission here in Britain. We hope and pray that you'll have a wonderfully happy and fruitful 2026.

When I was on mission in Lima, Peru, a comment I often heard was, "you Columbans, you're different, you're not like the rest". This was meant as a compliment. People seemed to feel that Columbans were "special" because of the way we associated with them, accompanied them, sympathized and identified with them, all this in the context of some of the poorest parts of the city. They often remarked on what they recognized as our flexibility, informality and good humour. Maybe they saw us as being approachable, in a way that other sectors of the Church were not.

These sentiments have always stayed with me. They make me proud to be a Columban. They convince me that there is such a thing as "Columban-ness", a particular spirit that embraces, not only Columban Missionaries, but also those we serve and who support us.

We are different, in the best sense of the word. We continue to offer our service to parts of the world considered to be poverty-stricken, dangerous, even "off-limits". At home and abroad, we proclaim the Good News of Jesus, even when this might make us unpopular.

We stand for the rights of migrants, refugees and displaced persons. We support measures to combat climate change. We work for the protection and promotion of biodiversity (for example, in the grounds of our house in Solihull). We look to a future that is prosperous, fair and sustainable.

This is who we are and we will continue to be so in 2026. We know you are with us, and this gives us strength to carry on. During the year, we hope to meet some of you when we visit parishes in the dioceses of Hexham & Newcastle and Arundel & Brighton.

Thank you. God Bless and Happy New Year!

"This painting grew out of my years as a theology student.

It is an attempt to portray the crucifixion as it truly was; humiliating, unjust, enslaving, and helpless.

Only when we allow ourselves to feel the weight of this truth, can we begin to glimpse the mystery that follows: resurrection."
